

With Whom Do You Partner?

We create partnerships in the workplace for many reasons. In the space below, list up to four people whom you work with regularly. Write down the reasons you work well with these people and their talents that make them a valuable partner.

My Partners at Work	What are this person's talents that make them a valuable partner?
Antonio	When it's time to start a new project, I always talk with Antonio. I explain the project to him, and he helps me put all the steps in the right order.
